

CGS3
— L A W —

Alicia Tenreiro

Paralegal

City: San Diego

Email: atenreiro@CGS3.com

Phone: 858.779.1721

Hardworking and diligent with a keen eye for detail, Alicia Tenreiro brings experience in various types of law gained in a wide variety of jurisdictions to her role as a litigation paralegal. With both law firm and in-house experience, she embodies CGS3's commitment to fielding a team of experienced and skilled professionals who understand the clients' objectives and needs.

An expert in assisting with all phases of trial and alternative dispute resolution proceedings – in small matters to complex cases – she is a vital member of the CGS3 litigation team, working closely with firm attorneys to help obtain the very best outcomes for their clients.

Alicia began her legal career while studying sociology at St. John's University. Prior to joining CGS3, she was a litigation paralegal at several New York and New Jersey law firms, including Quinn, Emanuel, Urquhart & Sullivan and The Weingarten Law Firm.

Education

- B.A. Sociology, St. John's University

Practice Areas

- Dispute Resolution & Litigation